IN BRIEF Try co-working

POOLE: A new co-working space in Poole is offering prospective customers the opportunity to use its facilities free of charge for a day.

The Factory, based at Alder Hills, is hosting the event on Friday, March 17.

The site is the home of housing provider BCHA's social enterprise outlet the New Leaf Company. Its co-working hub is aimed at small start-up business and offers free 100MB Wi-Fi, hot and cold drinks, an on-site cafe and free parking.

The venue is home to charity Dorset Scrapstore and Hey Create, which provides laser cutting and engraving and 3D printing. It also houses the catering and repairs and maintenance services for BCHA customers.
