

Client: Bournemouth Churches Housing Association
Source: Daily Echo (Bournemouth) (Main)
Date: 09 February 2017
Page: 27
Reach: 15370
Size: 811cm2
Value: 2797.95

WE'RE IN THE ECHO

■ Peter Wiggins, Enterprise Business Manager at The New Leaf Company with Sally Turner, Debbie Clifton and Lorna Trent from Salt Hub, at the recent Lights On at The Factory local business and networking event at The Factory, BCHA's social enterprise on Alder Hills. Picture: Paul Thomson at Oakphotography.co.uk

■ Martial arts presentation at Bournemouth Library, the Triangle, part of the libraries Chinese New Year celebrations. Picture: Alan O'Sullivan

Client: Bournemouth Churches Housing Association
Source: Daily Echo (Bournemouth) (Main)
Date: 09 February 2017
Page: 27
Reach: 15370
Size: 811cm2
Value: 2797.95

■ The Bournemouth Caledonian Society celebrated Burns Night in the Scottish Hall, in Charminster in true Scottish style with pipes played by Jim Garrioch and haggis, Scottish dancing, singing and poetry by Robert Burns

■ Rob Marsden, co-director and manager at Gallone's Ice Cream Bournemouth with Hannah Vieira who has been participating with BCHA's Learning & Work department and Rob is helping her to follow a potential career in retail or hospitality

Client: Bournemouth Churches Housing Association
Source: Daily Echo (Bournemouth) (Main)
Date: 09 February 2017
Page: 27
Reach: 15370
Size: 811cm2
Value: 2797.95

■ The British Legion was presented with a cheque for £531 from Waitrose, Parkstone as part of their Community Matters project. This is on top of the £4,000 the store raised by selling poppies

■ The official opening of the Lytchett Bay Viewing mound including dignitaries, Cllr Mrs J Richards, Mayor of Lytchett Minster and Upton, Cllr Xena Dion, Mayor of Poole and Michael Tomlinson MP